ble Compound. Their letters are on file in Mrs. Fishham's office, and prove this cintestent to be a fact and not a mere boast.

Overshadowing indeed is the success of this great medicine, and compared with it all other medicines and treatment for women are experiments.

Why has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Gompound accomplished its wide-spread, results for good?

Why has it lived and thrived and done its glorious work for a quarter of a centry?

Simply and surely because of its eterling worth. The reason no other medicine has even approached its success is plainly and positively because there is no other medicine fin the world so good for women's lile.

The wonderful power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the diseases of womankind is not because it is a stimulant—not because it is a paillative, but simply because it is no moderful tonic and reconstructor ever discovered to act directly upon the uterine system, positively curus disease and displacements and restoring health and vigor.

Maryelous cures are reported from all parts of the country by women who have recognized the virtue in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe constantly prescribe Lydia E. FIFTEEN YEARS OF TORTURE

Itching and Painful Sores Covered Head and Body—Cured in a Week by Cuticura.

"For lifteen years my scalp and fore-head was one mass of scale, and my body was covered with sores. Words cannot express how I suffered from the stehing and pain. I tried many doctors and treatments, but could get no help, and had given up hope when a friend told me to get Cutieura. After bathing with Cuti-cura Beap and applying Cutieura Ont-ment for three days, my head was as clear as ever, and to my surprise and joy, one cake of song and one hox of out-ment made a complete cure in one week. OLD-WORLD ODDITIES.

A stork walked into a church at Moormond, Holland, the other evening and atood on one log on the top of the pulpit until the end of the service. The owner of a house in a London suburb altered the number 12 to 12A. The borough authorities objected, and, though he pleaded that he could not lot a house numbered 13, they made him replace the 13 on the door.

A retired army lieutenant has been arrested at Naupilia, Greece, owing to having predicted some weeks ago that M. Delyannia, the premier, would be assassainsted on June 12, which was the actual date of the crime. He says the murder was foreiold to him in a dream.

Apropos of a statement that "coal would appear a sirange article of diet," a correspondent writes to the Westminster Gazette saying that it is not only children and cats who regard it as a luxury, as he has an Irish water spaniel which makes away with a number of lumps a day unless the coal is kept out of his reach.

In the fashionable West end of London a teacup especially made for fortune telling is being sold. The cup is engraved on the inside with the mystic symbols of the fortune-teller—a bell, heart, horse-shoes, and so on. The teal leaves at the bottom are twirled round the cup, and according to the position or objects on which they stick so is one's fortune.

Portamouth, England, has passed an ordinance for the suppression of cock-crowing. The chicken fanciers say it cannot be suppressed, but the London News says that a partial remety consists in placing a perch where the cock rocets so high that when he stands up to crow he knecks his head against the roof and desists. A swinging board hung over his head answers the same purpose, at any

There is a singular coincidence about the two English royal princesses named Louise. They are both the daughters of British monarchs, they are of very fair complexion and both married out of the blood royal. Each also selected Scottish peers—the dukes of Argyll and Fife—both of whom are as fair-skinned as their wives. Still further goes the coincidence, for neither of the royal duchasses has presented her husband with a male beir.
